Fantastic first CD!

This Spanish band gave me the best "Speed Thrash Heavy Métal" !

You remember perhaps DEMONIAC with its "The Fire And The Wind" album in 1999 ?

REDIMONI is in the same category and I like that!

Take a shaker! Put inside:

"SLAYER (The Final Command), VENOM (the first years), METALLICA (the first years), all the german Speed /Thrash armada from the of the 80's, few BATHORY, some melodic Black Metal, inspirations, melodies, a correct production, good musicians and a great singer for the style".

Then you SHAKE, SHAKE, SHAKE and you've got it!

The Onset Of Chaos !

Well of course with a bigger production this EP would have been 20% more efficient, but let's take this like a first Demo and let's wait for the new CD REDIMONI will bring us !

You could see the cover from the new CD on their Myspace.
